

VOLUME 9 – ISSUE 9

SEPTEMBER 2009

I have some wonderful news to share!

Beginning in the spring of 2010, I will unveil a social network that is strictly for romantics. In fact, that's what it's called, Strictly 4 Romantics. Anyone can join and become a member. Your only eligibility requirement is that you must be a romantic. Romantics will be able to exchange information about the best romantic movies to watch, the best romantic get-aways, the best romantic books to read, the best romantic songs, the best romantic meals, etc.

The list is endless and you will be able to have chats with other romantics. We will also have our own You-Tube channel for some serious interviews with people you'll want to meet (couples who have been married for a long time, newlyweds, couples renewing vows, couples who share how they met, how they became engaged, how they found true love the second time around, etc). They will be everyday couples with a romantic story to share.

More information about Strictly4Romantics.com is coming! I was recently told by someone that romantics are a dying breed and that women/men aren't looking for romance anymore. Being the die-hard romantic that I am, I just simply refused to accept that theory and hope you will, too.
