Happy St. Patrick's Day!

Hope the best of luck came your way on St. Patrick's Day!!

I want to thank everyone who participated in the February Celebration to recognize Black History Month. Over 200 gifts were given out, including the grand prize of a Kindle Fire to Julie Callwood. A portion of the proceeds from the sale of the Truly Everlasting DVD went to benefit Florida Memorial University.

I attended the Founders Day Celebration at FMU in Miami on March 20th and a presentation was made to the college at that time. On that day I also received the Sarah Blocker Award from the university for my service to the university and to my community. I felt truly honored.

Brenda Jackson Selected For Prestigious Award!!

One of the highest honors RWA (Romance Writers of America) bestows is the RWA Nora Roberts Lifetime Achievement Award. This award is presented to an author in recognition of significant contributions to the romance genre. I was notified this weekend that I am the recipient of RWA Nora Roberts Lifetime Achievement Award for 2012.

This is such a prestigious honor and I thank RWA for selecting me. I also thank my readers for supporting me over the past seventeen years by letting me do what I enjoy - which is to write those romance stories that put a smile on your face and let you believe in the power of love and happy endings.

This scene would have started on page 216 and ended with the Epilogue. Click here to read the scene and remember it's unedited.
