Volume 13 - Issue 3

March 2013

TO MY VERY SPECIAL READERS

I hope all of you have a blessed Easter!

This year started out as a busy one for me. It's book deadline after deadline, as I prepare for my 100th book in the fall. It doesn't seem like I've written 100 books, but all I have to do is scan my list of books and novellas to see that it's really true. I hope over the past eighteen years they have been books that mean as much to you as they mean to me.

I am also excited with the start of a new family saga - The Grangers of Virginia. The first book features Jace Granger in A Brother's Honor, and it comes out in June. Free complimentary copies of this book will be given away and several contests will be held for other prizes. All you have to do is go on Facebook and "Like" my Fan Page to be eligible for books and prizes that we will give away periodically not only during the month of May but for the rest of the year. Also, an excerpt of the first few chapters will be available for Fan Page members. More information on how to join the Brenda Jackson Fan Page on Facebook is included in this newsletter.

I am also excited about my Westmoreland trilogy featuring Zane, Canyon and Stern. These books are due to hit the stores for your reading pleasure in July, August and September.

Thank you for your continued support and more information is coming about the 100th book celebration that will be held in November.
