Subject: Brenda Jackson May 2014 NewsletterView this email online if it doesn't display correctlyVolume 14 - Issue 1*May 2014Hello everyone!

I want to thank you for your understanding for the absence of my newsletters for the past 7 months. And I appreciate all your words of love and comfort during the loss of Gerald, the man who is and will always be the love of my life.

I needed time to get things together in my life, and I appreciate your care, support and understanding. I am back into my writing and look forward to all the books I intend to bring your way. And I will be doing a few book tours to promote Book 2 of the Grangers Series - A Man's Promise.

Please check my travel schedule. I might be coming to a town near you.

Please continue to keep me in your prayers.

Are You Ready for Caden Granger?

A man's word is his bond. His family is his strength. His heart is his own.

Superstar musician Caden Granger has spent years running from love, commitment and family. Yet despite his fame and fortune, he knows the kind of respect and adoration he needs can only come from one person—the very woman who wants nothing to do with him.

Charity volunteer and owner of a wine boutique, Shiloh Timmons finally got her life on track once her relationship with Caden ended, and she's in no hurry to revisit a romance with the man who believes she left him standing at the altar.

If Caden can't have Shiloh by his side, all the success in the world will mean nothing. Now he has a chance to renew his promises...but is it too late?

Update on A Silken Thread - The Movie

Debbie Allen is excited about directing this movie and I'm excited about her doing so. Executive Producer Leon Youngblood has brought the project to the attention of a representative of the Weinstein Company who loves the script. It's great that both Lionsgate and Weinstein are interested in distribution for A Silken Thread!! In the next few months, I will be notified of the official dates for casting calls. Readers may audition for extras after it's determine which cities filming will take place. Filming is expected to start January 2015.
