Volume 14 - Issue 4

October 2014

Hello everyone!

I want to thank everyone who participated in the Brenda Jackson's Fall Book Sale. Over 200 orders were taken and over $5,000 raised for the Josiephine Streater Threatt Scholarship Foundation. Although the sale ended on October 8th, any purchases from the bookstore until December 1st will go to this Foundation. Our goal is to raise over $20,000 for 2014. Look for weekend specials and raffles that will be held, including a chance to win an Apple I-phone 6. All proceeds will benefit the Foundation and is tax deductible.

Thanks to my readers who came out to support during my visit to Atlanta during the Delta Authors on Tour event.

I finished my manuscript for A Lover's Vow and I think you will enjoy reading about Dalton Granger and Jules Bradford, as it's finally revealed who killed Sylvia Granger. The book is scheduled to come out in May 2014 but we're working with Harlequin to see if we can get it out sooner...even if it's a month earlier.

October is "Introduce a Reader to Brenda Jackson" Month. During the Fall Book Sale, a free Brenda Jackson book went out with all orders for 3 or more books. We will continue that trend through the end of the month. On top of that, during the week of October 20 - October 26, 2014, we will pick 5 readers daily who send the name and address of a friend they would like to introduce to Brenda Jackson books. We will ship the book free anywhere in the United States! More info in this newsletter.

We still have a few spots left on the May 2014 cruise to Bermuda where I will celebrate my 20th anniversary as an author. Please come party with us. More info on the cruise is in this newsletter. Prices subject to change after December 1, 2014.

November is Westmoreland Month on the Brenda Jackson Author Fan Page on Facebook. Please "Like" the Page and join me. More info in this newsletter including how you can win prizes daily. To like the page, click here:
