NEW YORK TIMES AND USA TODAY
BESTSELLING AUTHOR

Hello everyone,

I hope all the mothers enjoyed their special day this month. Even while practicing social distancing, I enjoyed mine.

I finished writing Garth Outlaw's book, titled THE WIFE HE NEEDS, and started on another, ENTANGLED PURSUITS. This is Book 1 of a new series and I am excited. This series connects with the Grangers and the Protectors and it is THE MEN OF ACTION series. My goal is to finish the book by the end of June or before.

All my scheduled events for 2020 are officially cancelled. That includes my book signings, book conferences and guest appearances. This is due to the coronavirus. I am okay with the cancellations. More than anything, I want all of us to come through this with our lives intact. Besides, staying at home gives me more time to concentrate on writing those books you enjoy reading.

Until next month, please continue to stay safe,

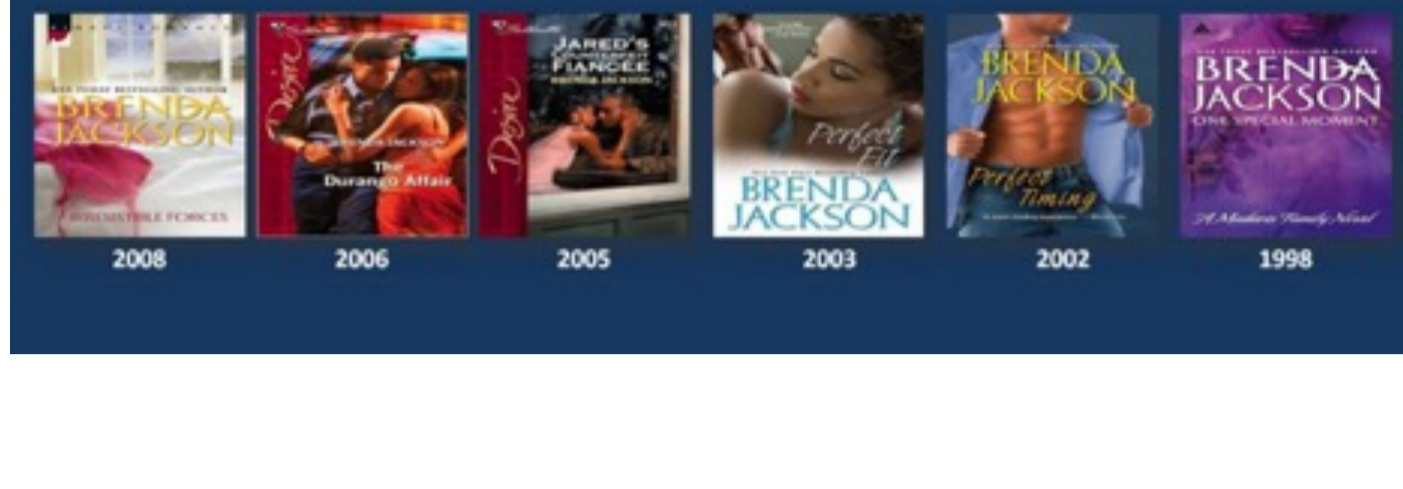

Brenda

ASK BRENDA!

Q: In regards to the upcoming book, ENTANGLED PURSUITS, which is Book 1 in the MEN OF ACTION SERIES, are there any major differences between this series and the Protector Series? Is there more suspense and action?

A: The only difference I can see is that the Granger Series and the Protector Series had a connecting thread thru the books. This series will not. In the Granger Series, the connecting thread in all three books was "who killed Sylvia Granger"? In the Protector Series, the connecting thread was the Murphy Erickson case. In the Men of Action Series, each hero and heroine will face their own set of challenges and yes, there will be some suspense but a lot of action more so than anything. The only connecting thread through the 3 books - if you want to consider it as one - is that all 6 individuals from the 3 books will attend the same wedding at the beginning of the series in Book 1 - the wedding of Stonewall and Joy. That means that Stonewall and Joy are acquainted in some way with all 3 couples and will be a connecting link and will appear in all 3 books.
