I am hoping that this year is going great for you so far!

I hope everyone had a wonderful month! In celebration of Valentines Day, on my Face Book Fan Page, from February 1 – February 14th, we held Brenda Jackson 14 Days of Love, Passion and Romance. Thousands participated in the games and fun, and 500 gifts of love were given out.

CONGRATULATIONS to all the recipients!

I want to thank everyone for reading my books.

Peace and Love,
Brenda Jackson

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO ALL THE JANUARY BABIES!!

THIS MONTH, I CELEBRATED MY BIRTHDAY ON FEBRUARY 2ND. ALSO, IN MEMORY OF MY HUSBAND, THE MAN WHO WILL ALWAYS HAVE MY HEART, I WANT TO ACKNOWLEDGE GERALD JACKSON, SR.'S BIRTHDAY ON FEBRUARY 11TH.

The lady circled in the photo was Lucy Higgs Nichols. She was born into slavery in Tennessee, but during the Civil War she managed to escape and found her way to 23rd Indiana Infantry Regiment which was encamped nearby. She stayed with the regiment and worked as a nurse throughout the war.

After the war, she moved north with the regiment and settled in Indiana, where she found work with some of the veterans of the 23rd.

She applied for a pension after Congress passed the Army Nurses Pension Act of 1892 which allowed Civil War nurses to draw pensions for their service. The War Department had no record of her, so her pension was denied. Fifty-five surviving veterans of the 23rd petitioned Congress for the pension they felt she had rightfully earned, and it was granted.

The photograph shows Nichols and other veterans of the Indiana regiment at a reunion in 1898. Below by the troops who referred to her as "Aunt Lucy"; Nichols was the only woman to receive an honorary induction into the Grand Army of the Republic, and she was buried in an unmarked grave in New Albany with full military honors in 1915.
